YIN-CHU JOU NAMED TO POSTS

Ms. Yin-Chu Jou, noted concert pianist from Taiwan, who has performed extensively in Manila and New York City, has been named Group Tour Coordinator and Music Director for FAF.

Recently Ms. Jou has also been named Artistic Director of the Youth Symphony for the United Nations. Some of this year's FAF tours will be done in coordination with her UN affiliated group.

Ms. Jou, preparing for her upcoming concert series at the Greenwich Connecticut Arts Council.

Call her at: 914-925-0080 to collaborate!

Last Minute Travel:

ITALY FAM TOURS

Groups Leaders, only

There are still places available for next month's familiarization tour to Italy. Please go online: www.faf.org or call for dates and details.

Come visit us in Venice!

FAF's free, land only tour (Airfare refunded when group travels with FAF; companions welcome for a modest fee) tour includes Rome, Tuscany, and Venice - but the exciting news is that FAF has an office representing us, in Mestre, just outside Venice. Contact us here, or there at direct2italy@faf.org

New Central/Latin America Focus

Through a new collaboration with the Community Development Partners for the Americas, FAF now has access to a WIDE variety of Central and Latin American tour opportunities for US based concert groups.

Call for great tour ideas!

WORLD CULTURE OPEN / FAF

The noted World Culture Open joins efforts with FAF in 2006 and beyond. This summers FAF Youth Assembly at the UN will include WCO participation and FAF will help with logistics on 2006 WCO events in NYC and GHANA!

Call for details and your group's participation!

Groups seeking to perform at WCO events in NY or Ghana, contact: 1-800-526-2908

KATRINA UPDATE

FAF'S FINDING NEW HOPE PROJECT

YOUR TOUR CAN HELP OTHERS

FAF's respected Finding New Hope project is off again, this time in Katrina country.

Volunteer concert groups have joined us on our well documented peace and healing, arts-based tours in the Balkans, with 9/11 and other families affected by terror, and now hundreds are coming with us to Louisiana this Spring.

Please visit us online to learn how your group can become involved in this important arts service project to the affected communities there.

U.N.and the Rest of the World, too

Don't forget that for over 30 years, FAF has prepared customized tours to the best group destinations worldwide. From Beijing, to Budapest, to Brooklyn, contact FAF first!

And don't forget FAF's Youth Assembly: August 15-18, 2006 @ UN Headquarters in NYC

FAF is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, affiliated with the United Nations. Tours are fully tax deductible as allowed by law.
